

BALLET IDAHO

Peter Anastos, Artistic Director

Family Series is designed to introduce boys and girls and their adult friends to the ballet. It is a one-hour interactive introduction to the show that will heighten understanding and appreciation of dance.

Family Series performances have been changed to 6 pm, Tuesdays at the Esther Simplot Performing Arts Academy

- Learn the story behind the ballet
- Discover behind-the-scenes secrets
- Meet the characters
- Interact with our professional dancers
- Participate in creative movement

FAMILY SERIES

February 2, 2010, *6:00 pm

Cinderella

Cinderella and the Ugly Stepsisters and of course, the lost slipper, will take the audience on a magical journey from Cinderella's kitchen to the Palace Ball to a fairytale ending. This new Ballet Idaho production will delight children of all ages.

April 6, 2010, *6:00 pm

All-Italian Program

The All-Italian Program, will feature Vivaldi's Four Seasons, choreographed by Balletmaster, Alex Ossadnik. Also on stage, will be Stravinsky's Pulcinella, a Venetian comic adventure based on the drawings of Domenico Tiepolo and finally, a ballet choreographed to Mendelssohn's lush Italian Symphony.
