

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Date: August 9, 2010
Contact: Heather Calkins
W: 343-0556 x 22

BALLET IDAHO

August class offerings at Ballet Idaho Academy!

BOISE. Ballet Idaho's Academy is offering summer ballet classes during the month of August. For three weeks, beginning August 16 through September 3, ballet students ages 8 to adult can study Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced ballet.

For students who are either registered for the fall term, or thinking of joining the Ballet Idaho Academy for the fall term, these classes will provide an excellent opportunity to get in shape for their upcoming fall classes. This is vital for returning students to progress right from the start so little time is wasted regaining the level of strength and technique needed to start the new term. For new students, this provides a chance to get a head start in learning technical skills and becoming familiar with ballet vocabulary. Our summer faculty are Ballet Idaho company members who will offer professional training at the highest level.

Sign up today for one week, two weeks, or three weeks and get in shape for the fall term! Classes are Monday-Friday from 4:30-6:00 pm at the Esther Simplot Performing Arts Academy in downtown Boise. Tuition is $65 per week, or if you enroll for the entire 3 weeks, tuition is discounted to $170, plus a one-time registration fee.

For more information, visit www.balletidaho.org or call 343-0556.

###

Since 1972, Ballet Idaho has enriched lives through classic ballet and served as a dynamic reflection of the Boise community. Led by Artistic Director Peter Anastos, Ballet Idaho is the only professional ballet company and academy in the state, bringing together the highest level of dance excellence with a commitment to education and training. For more information, visit www.balletidaho.org.